

Biographies of Assistants / Trustees for Election

Anna McDonald

(New Assistant / Trustee)

Anna McDonald is Director of Global ESG Strategy at PGIM, which is the investment management business of Prudential Financial, Inc. Anna started her career in investment banking at Barclays Capital, but later left to take up a role with the Church of England to run the Ethical Investment Advisory Group (EIAG). She led the development of ethical investment advice, on issues ranging from Climate Change to Human Rights and Big Tech. She is also on the Finance and Investment Committee of the charity, Stewardship.

Richard Farmbrough

(New Senior Treasurer / Chair)

Richard is the son of a clergyman. An award-winning television producer, he runs a television production company and a media and technology start-up. Richard lives in Somerset with his family, and joined Clergy Support Trust in 2018.

Constance Chinhengo

(New Treasurer / Vice Chair)

Constance is a senior manager at the Financial Ombudsman Service. Her background is in financial services, having previously worked for HSBC and Prudential Insurance. Constance has a Masters in HR and Personnel Development and is a member of the Chartered Institute of Personnel Development. An active member and youth mentor at her local Salvation Army, Constance joined Clergy Support Trust in 2020.

The Reverend Nancy Goodrich

(Returning Treasurer / Vice Chair)

Nancy is the vicar of Bollington in Cheshire. She has previously been an area dean and vicar in North Lancashire and was Vice Chair of the House of Clergy for Blackburn Diocese, which she represented on General Synod. Her background is as a Chartered Accountant for PWC and in industry. Nancy joined Clergy Support Trust in 2019, became a Treasurer in 2021.

